

---

FAMILY DEVOTIONAL | Week of January 14th

This week in Kidstown, we learned about Jesus getting baptized by John the Baptist. Jesus was still in preparation for his ministry. He was setting an example for others to see what it was like to be baptized. Jesus did not have to be baptized because he was made perfect. Baptism is a way that we outwardly proclaim our faith. God was pleased with Jesus and said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Scripture: Matthew 3

Key Point: God loves us unconditionally

Key Scripture: Matthew 3:17

“And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Monday

1. Review the story from Matthew 3.
2. What is one new thing that you learned yesterday?

Tuesday

1. Parents talk to your children about the 3 different types of resolutions you learned.

Wednesday

1. As a family, pray about people who you want to see get baptized.

Thursday

1. Make a plan of action about reaching these people/this person.

Friday

1. Baking Time! Click on the link below to go further into the story by making fun sugar cookies!
2. <https://www.rotation.org/topic/cooking-kitchen-workshop-lessons-and-ideas-for-baptism-of-jesus--john-the-baptist>