

Upcoming Events & Service Opportunities

Mon., Jan. 30, 6pm, CE Auditorium
FOOD BANK COMMUNITY DINNER

Weds., Feb. 1–April 4, 6pm, CE Loft B
ALPHA COURSE
 Do you have questions about the Christian faith, but no place to ask them? Do you have friends who are open to Christianity, but need a place to meet others who are also searching? The Alpha Course provides a safe place to come and invite others who are exploring Christianity or are new to the faith. We offer dinner, good conversation, and discussion around a video presentation on various topics relating to the Christian faith, such as who Jesus is, why He died, why (and how) we should read the Bible, and how God guides us. Contact Nancy Eckardt, nancye@churchbcc.org.

Fri., Feb. 10, 7–9pm, Harron House

COTN currently works in Sierra Leone, Malawi, Uganda, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, and the U.S. Join us for an evening of fellowship and dessert at the home of Viv and Lindsay Harron as we hear from and pray for Peter. Please RSVP with Alana Acheson at alana.acheson@yahoo.com.

ONE CHURCH, MANY LOCATIONS

Bethany's two satellites – in Shoreline and West Seattle – have been up and running for sixteen months. Today we'll hear how God has taken these Bethany communities from infancy to thriving local congregations, and stories of the lives He's changed along the way. Remember to pray for these Bethany outposts who are making Christ visible in the greater Seattle area.

We encourage you to learn more about our satellites: visit them online, email their pastors, or even better, check out a Sunday service and see for yourself the story God is writing through all of Bethany's locations.

 Bethany North & Bethany West Seattle services typically utilize video technology to distribute sermons.

HEY GUYS

{MEN, DUDES, BROS, FELLAS, STUDS}

Do you know why you're here? The notion of calling is a common challenge for men. Discovering our calling, developing it, and dealing with the dissonance that often arises is a daily reality. During this retreat, we're going to spend time learning why living into our calling is central to finding the abundant life for which we're created. Richard Dahlstrom and Joe Springer bring the Word.
